Simon Peter Kyambadde

9/13/2015

We did not choose him, no, he chose us and appointed us to go and bear fruit; fruit that will last. Without him we can do nothing. We may have the zeal, the intelligence, the giftedness, and the resources. We may appear successful in the eyes of the world and in our own eyes. We might bear plenty of fruit through our efforts, but unless we do so with Christ, these fruits will not be the kind that lasts. Jesus leaves no middle ground: unless we gather with him, we scatter.

EBIVUDDE MU SHARING

Biki bye tulabira ku Noa Mawaggali ne banne?

- Okwevamu mu kujulira Kristu
- Obutatya kwoleka kiki kyebali
- Surender: Matthias surrendered other women
- Team work: they had a pastoral program; some went to Kampala, others remained teaching
- A spirit of sharing: Luke surrendered his home for teaching catechesis
- Witnessing to Christ in word and deed
- Perseverance in times of difficulties
- Teaching the faith. Catechesis should be a primary job of a priest
- They got involved in work that supported their livelihood
- They shared the word of God which they had received
- They were good citizens who respected civil authority, without submitting to falsehood
- They loved their culture but did not submit to what was contrary to God's will in it
- They were obedient to religious leadership
- They were together with their people also in hard times: Noa surrendered to protect others
- They loved the life of sacraments; had to walk long distances to receive them
- They abandoned witchcraft to embrace Christ, even though they had been raised in it

Biki ebisomoza okukkiriza kw'abakristu mu ssaza lino ennaku zino?

- Witchcraft and superstition, even Christian leaders are involved
- Too much emphasis on the kingdom and tradition
- Extreme poverty
- Having to pay fees, with so little resources
- Too many mushrooming Churches, Pentecostals, Bisaka religion
- A gospel of prosperity is taking away some, especially when proclaimed on loudspeakers
- Too much self-pity on the part of the priests
- Too little effort in feeding Christ's sheep. We wait for them to come to us
- Laziness of the faithful in receiving sacraments: marriage penance, anointing, etc
- Pastors being too money-minded, too many "baskets"
- Too little emphasis on catechesis, the faithful have insufficient knowledge of their faith
- Ignorance, not caring enough. We have nothing to offer in terms of faith
- Too much pre-occupation with technology
- The school curriculum does not emphasize the teaching of the faith
- Scandals among the clergy undermine the faith of the faithful
- Politics can divide families and Christian communities
- Unemployment especially among the youth leading to betting, drug abuse, homosexuality
- Selfishness
- Not being available to the people. Priests are nicknamed "bwotomukeere"
- Domestic violence
- Long distances from sub-parishes
- Sickness and lack of sufficient pastoral care for the sick
- Popular missions and Charismatic Renewal need to be regulated, they create grades
- People do not see our good acts. A faith of words and not deeds.

Biki ebikoleddwa okusitula embeera y'abakristu? Biki ebikyetaagisa?

- SSD has done a lot
- The diocese has put up structures for schools, water tanks, health facilities
- There is care for the orphans
- HOSFA has helped those with low income
- There are workshops for self-sustenance and economic empowerment
- Radio programs given by the Bishop and others
- Provision of seedlings for coffee, trees, bananas, as well as goats, pigs, cows
- Micro credit programs
- Programs to help those with disabilities and women
- There are workshops for teaching people to become good leaders

What still needs to be done?

- Follow-up is still lacking
- Inject more money in schools and hospitals
- Disseminate information to people with regard to what is being done
- Establish clear criteria for choosing places to start development projects
- Evaluate impact of what has been established so far
- Promote team-work
- Let priests get involved in projects started in their parishes
- Let development teams start around the parishes
- Let parishes also benefit from development programs from the diocese
- Have exposure visits; learn from others
- Improve the level of education in the diocese, children do not have to go elsewhere
- Promote catechesis, sacraments, mujiji and family prayer
- Have proper custody and development of Church land
- Create different desks for development undertakings in parishes
- Let priests have a heart that cares for the well-being of the people as a starting point
- Accountability and transparency is still lacking; people are willing to pay where these exist
- Priests should promote projects they find in their places of work
- Teach people about development also in your preaching
- Have a sense of ownership. Give all your energies to the place where you are appointed
- Have greater pastoral zeal; you only reap what you sow
- Improve the welfare of catechists
- Involve parish executives in development projects to ensure continuity
- Let Church properties be models of development
- Let inspection of development projects be made by Church authority as well
- Some people stay too long in particular places so that they run out of fresh ideas

Biki ebisomoza amaka, era bisarirwa magezi ki?

- Poverty; not enough food
- Domestic violence due to poverty
- AIDS
- The phone culture
- Lack of planning for families (not family planning!)
- Role conflict often due to income inequalities
- Political differences
- Men ignoring their family responsibilities
- Alcoholism
- Witchcraft
- Differences in religions, onslaught of Pentecostals
- Polygamy, even among those wedded in Church
- Lack of virility, or too much of it among men
- Working at long distances from home

Decline of faith and morals
Lack of prayer in families
Different ideologies from a secular culture, thinking in terms of partners not couples
Lack of agreement with regard to artificial family planning
Slander, and rousers
Lack of hygiene
Ignorance, differences in levels of education
Anger, lack of forgiveness, jealousy
Age gap
Inter-tribal, inter-racial and inter-religious marriages

Biki ebisobola okukolebwa?

Courses on marriage be given to priests
Those who can research on marriage do so
Give greater emphasis on economic empowerment; get them out of poverty
Charistas and SSD programs should reach every corner
Promote education, promote job creation
Promote cooperatives for both men and women
Focal Point HIV Program increase efforts
The Church should promote sexual education and Ekisaakaate
Promote retreats at parishes
Have house visitations, and look also at the welfare of families during visits
Prepare youth for marriage
Counsel those with marriage problems
Promote popular devotions
